“Stability and Change in International Dispute Settlement”
Maison de la Paix, 28 September 2018

8h15 – Registration

9h00 - Opening remarks by Prof. Gabrielle Kaufmann-Kohler, MIDS/CIDS

9h15 - Keynote speech by Prof. Philippe Sands QC, Matrix Chambers/University College London

9h45 - First panel – The New York Convention at 60: Is it a rock in the stormy sea?

Prof. Albert Jan van den Berg, Hanotiau & van den Berg
Prof. Caroline Kleiner, University of Strasbourg
Prof. Gary Bell, National University of Singapore
Dr. Leonila Guglya, Business School Lausanne/MIDS Alumna

Moderator: Dr. Réka Papp, CIDS Senior Researcher/Office of Professor Pierre Tercier

11h15 – Coffee break

11h45 - Second panel – The changing landscape of investor-state dispute settlement

Mr. Colin Brown, European Commission
Prof. Christoph Schreuer, Zeiler Partners
Prof. Hélène Ruiz-Fabri, Max Planck Institute Luxembourg
Mr. Guillaume Guez, University of Geneva/MIDS Alumnus

Moderator: Dr. Michele Potestà, CIDS Senior Researcher/Lévy Kaufmann-Kohler

13h15 – Lunch
14h45 - Debate – Realpolitik in rule-based systems

“Is politicization of the appointment process a necessary characteristic of dispute settlement institutions established by multilateral treaties?”

Presiding Panel:

Prof. Brigitte Stern (chair), University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne
Prof. Thomas Schultz, Graduate Institute/King’s College London
Prof. Makane Moïse Mbengue, University of Geneva

Advocates:

Dr. Mamadou Hebié, Leiden University/International Court of Justice
Dr. Josef Ostřanský, MIDS Lecturer/CIDS Researcher
Dr. María de la Colina, Matrix Chambers
Mr. Brian McGarry, MIDS Lecturer/CIDS Researcher

16h15 - Closing remarks by Prof. Laurence Boisson de Chazournes, Prof. Marcelo Kohen and Prof. Zachary Douglas, MIDS/CIDS

19h00 – Gala Dinner at the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Museum